

Working with Reggio Practices in Mind

Educator's Workshop

You will learn all the pieces that make the Reggio approach unique and rewarding to integrate into your current school culture. Includes a school tour; hand-ons activities; discussion panel; as well as all of the components that make this innovative way of teaching and learning exciting!

Teacher's Role

The Image of the Child

Parents as Partners

100 Languages

How the Environment acts as a Third Teacher

$40 per participant.
Checks made payable to
St. Paul's Preschool.
Limited space available.

Date Thursday, March 8, 2012
Time 9:00 – 2:30 p.m. **Includes light lunch**
Location St. Paul's Preschool
1221 Wass Street Tustin, Ca. 92780
(714) 832-8201

Join Us!

Contact:

JoyceJonze@sbcglobal.net

This workshop is intended for those experienced staff members who are interested in incorporating authentic experiences into their teaching practices as influenced by the Reggio approach. Find out how projects emerge and how to assist children in extending their learning through a variety of materials. Many ideas will be presented including 'un-timing-your curriculum; revisiting and reflecting on your work as well as incorporating documentation in meaningful ways.

TO SECURE YOUR SPACE, PLEASE COMPLETE THE REGISTRATION FORM AND MAIL IT IN WITH YOUR PAYMENT BY
February 29, 2012